The Commandments in Verse.

Le nations, hear with hely dread, denoval, spake these words are sald: I am thy Lord: I am thy God; None other shalt thouse, ve or land,

II.

No graven image shalt theu make, Nor likeness to thyself shalt take. Of things in heaven, in carra below, Or waters that beneath it flow. It was not then thou shalt never bow, Nor any worship pay, or vow; For L the Lord, the mighty God, L en Jenlous em, and hold the rod, And on the children visit still. The sins their fathers do tabil. For generation, as they rise, Of those that hate me and despise; hat mito thousads mercy show Of those who love me, and who so this in their hearts with sacred awe. This strict command, this holy law.

This strict command, this holy law. III. The Lord doth o'er creation reign; Take not His Holy Name in vain. Who does commit a sin so bold, The Lord will not him gnitless hold.

This law remember to obey.

And hely keep the Subbath day:
six days shalt thou labor, and so
be all the work thou hast to do;
The seventh is that hely edd,
The Sabbath of the Lord thy God,
In it no kind of work be done
by by dimether or by the soon

Thy mr i, maid, beast, both males and mates,
And stranger that's within thy gates;
For in six days the mighty Lord
Made Heaven and earth thro'llis word;
He made as well the sea and this,
With all beside that in them is, And resting on the Sabbath, blest And hallowed it a day of rest.

Due honor to your mother pay.
And all your lather's laws obey.
That in the land, the Lord's blest give Ther, mayst be long amongst the living,

No nurder shalt thou ever do. But veng ful passions aye subdue.

Adultery shall the not commit. But keep thy very thought from it. I chonest isbor find thy weal. At a never nare to cheat or steal.
